

GENERAL SECRETARIAT OF THE GOVERNMENT

To: THE NATIONAL GAS TRANSMISSION COMPANY TRANSGAZ S.A. MEDIAȘ

Mr. Petru Ion Văduva, Chairman of the Board of Administration,
Mr. Ion Sterian, Director - General

Regarding: Request for convening the Ordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders of the National Gas Transmission Company Transgaz S.A. Mediaș

Dear Sirs,

Considering the provisions of Article 11 (6) of GEO 68/2019 on the establishment of measures at the level of central public administration and for amending and supplementing normative acts, according to which the exercise of rights and the fulfilment of obligations arising from the capacity as shareholder of the Romanian State in the National Gas Transmission Company Transgaz S.A. Mediaș is carried out by the General Secretariat of the Government,

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 119 (1) of Law No 31/1990 on companies, republished, as amended, to the provisions of Article 105 (23) of Law 24/2017 on issuers of financial instruments and market operations, republished, as amended,

In the light of the new regulations, Art. 29¹ para. (1) and (2) of G.E.O. no. 109/2011 on the corporate governance of public enterprises, as subsequently amended and supplemented,

"If the termination of an administrator's mandate causes the number of administrators to fall below the legal minimum, an ordinary general meeting of shareholders shall be convened to complete the number of members of the board of administration with interim administrators, who shall have a mandate until the selection procedure is completed." and

"The duration of the interim administrator's mandate shall be a maximum of 5 months, with the possibility of a one-time extension for two more months for justified reasons. If the procedure for the selection and appointment of the permanent administrators is completed before the expiry of the period for which the interim administrator has been appointed, the permanent administrator or administrators shall be appointed immediately by the general meeting of shareholders and the mandate of the interim administrators shall cease", conducting legal relationships directly or indirectly related to this Contract between the Company and third parties, as well as for statistical or marketing purposes. This agreement is also given in connection with the possible transfer abroad of the personal data of the Administrator. The Administrator hereby declares that it has been informed of the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 679 of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation) and of Law No. 190 of 18 July 2018 on measures implementing Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data). The Administrator declares that, at the end of the processing operations, he/she agrees that his/her personal data may be further processed by the Company, the shareholders and, if applicable, other public authorities. The Administrator declares that he/she has been informed that he/she has the right to withdraw his/her consent to the processing of personal data, to their use for statistical or marketing purposes, to their transfer abroad and to receive commercial communications at any time by written request to the Company.

Art. 5 The rights and obligations of the Company

5.1 The rights of the Company are mainly the following, but not limited to:

5.1.1 to evaluate quarterly, half-yearly and annually the activity of the members of the Board of Administration of the Company through the General Meeting of Shareholders;

5.1.2 to request, in writing, any information regarding the activity of the members of the Board of Administration and to receive a written response within maximum 10 days from the request.

5.2 The obligations of the Company are mainly the following, but not limited to:

5.2.1 to pay the Remuneration provided by this Contract and by the Applicable Legal Framework, including to withhold and transfer on time the income tax and all other obligatory contributions, fiscal or of any other nature, which fall on the Administrator, in his/her name and on his/her behalf.

5.2.2 to ensure to the Administrator the full freedom and the necessary conditions in order to fulfil the mandate/attribution/obligations, in compliance with the statutory provisions and the Applicable Legal Framework.

Art. 6 Remuneration

6.1 The administrator receives a remuneration that consists of a fixed monthly allowance.

6.2 According to the applicable Legal Framework, the maximum value of the gross monthly fixed allowance is in the amount of Lei 17 674 respectively the allowance fixed by Decision No 2 of 22.04.2021 of the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders for the other Administrators.

6.3 The mechanism for granting the fixed monthly allowance is as follows:

6.3.1 The Chairman of the Board of Administration and the members of the Board of Administration who work in at least 2 advisory committees set up at the board level, benefit from a fixed monthly allowance at the maximum amount.

6.3.2 The members of the Board of Administration who work in an advisory committee set up at the level of the board, benefit from a fixed monthly allowance representing 90% of the fixed monthly allowance at the maximum value.

6.3.3 The members of the Board of Administration who do not work in the advisory committees set up at the board level, benefit from a fixed monthly allowance representing 85% of the fixed monthly allowance at the maximum value.

6.4 The remuneration is paid once a month, regardless of the number of meetings in that month. The payment of the remuneration will be made in the following month, on the date on which the payments of the salary balance are made for the company's employees.

Art. 7 Liability of the parties

7.1 Failure to fulfil and/or improper fulfilment of the obligations undertaken by any of the signatory parties to this Contract shall result in the liability of the party in default.

7.2 The Party that caused the termination of this Contract due to non-performance and/or improper performance of the obligations undertaken, is liable to the other party by covering all damages that have been generated by the termination of the Contract.

7.3 The Administrator is liable for culpable non-compliance with the provisions of this Contract, the provisions of the decisions adopted by the General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Company and the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation.

7.4 The Administrator does not violate the duty of prudence and diligence and will not be liable if, at the time when making a business decision, he/she is reasonably entitled to consider that he/she is acting in the interest of the Company and on the basis of appropriate information, and if a fortuitous event does not occur, as defined by the Civil Code.

7.5 The company is liable for the culpable breach of the obligations assumed by this Contract and will cover the damages that were thus caused.

Art. 8 Force majeure and fortuitous event

8.1 The parties undertake to notify each other, in writing, within maximum 5 (five) days of the occurrence of any cause of force majeure or fortuitous event and, in general, to inform each other in a timely manner of any impediments that lead to difficulties in achieving the object of this Contract.

8.2 If the party invoking force majeure or fortuitous event has not complied with the obligation to notify, respectively the deadline set out in 8.1, then the party will not be exonerated.

8.3 In case of force majeure or fortuitous event, the parties will make joint efforts in order to reduce any damages that would result from the occurrence of such a cause.

Art. 9 Termination of the Contract

9.1 This Contract terminates by:

- a) Waiver of the term of office by the Administrator for reasons not attributable, by sending by the Mandatary of a notification at least 15 days before the date on which the termination will take effect, the Mandator having the possibility to waive this deadline;
- b) revocation of the Administrator by the Company, without prior notice and without the payment of any damage.
- c) expiration of the term of office;
- d) by law, in other cases provided for within the Applicable Legal Framework;
- e) withdrawal / non-granting of the ORNISS authorization;
- f) the agreement of the parties.

9.2 If the Administrator is in Final Impossibility to Exercise the Mandate/Legal Impediment, the termination will take effect from the date of expiration of the term of 90 consecutive days of incapacity. In this regard, the Mandatary is obliged to notify the Company of the state of physical incapacity/impossibility and to attach the related evidence on the day immediately following the expiration of this term.

9.3 In case of revocation of the administrator, the Company does not owe him any compensation for the period not performed during the term of office.

Art. 10 Applicable Law and Jurisdiction

10.1 This Contract is governed by and construed in accordance with the provisions of Romanian law.

10.2 Disputes arising from the conclusion, execution, modification, termination and interpretation of the terms of this Contract shall be settled by the competent legal courts.

Art. 11 Notifications

11.1 All notifications/requests/communications regarding this Contract, addressed by one party to the other, will be considered validly fulfilled if they are sent to the latter party by registered letter with acknowledgment of receipt or fax/e-mail to the addresses provided in art. 1 of the Contract or to those addresses that will be notified by any of the other parties, according to art. 11.2.

11.2 If a party changes its attributes mentioned in par. 1, it will have the obligation to communicate to the other party, within 5 (five) working days, the new coordinates. Failure to notify does not trigger any liability of the party using the attributes mentioned in the Contract or the last notified attributes.

Art. 12 Final Provisions:

12.1 This Agreement may be amended only by written agreement of the signatory parties, in the form of a written amendment.

12.2 This Contract is not an employment contract and is not governed by labour law.

12.3 If certain clauses of this Agreement become legally ineffective, the validity of the other provisions of this Agreement will not be affected. In such cases, the parties agree to renegotiate in good faith any clause that has become legally ineffective, adding the clause thus renegotiated to the provisions of this Agreement.

12.4 If, at any time during the term of this Contract, one of the parties does not expressly insist on imposing a particular provision of the Contract, it does not mean that that party has waived such provisions or has waived its right to impose such provisions.

12.5 This Contract represents the agreement of the parties and supersedes any other prior written or oral agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter of this agreement and there are no secondary elements on which they have not agreed.

12.6 Annexes 1, 2 and 3 are a part of this Contract.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have concluded today, __. __. __ in 2 (two) original counterparts, this Contract, the parties declaring, at the same time, that they have each received, on the occasion of signing this Contract, one original counterpart.

Annex 1

CONFIDENTIALITY RULES

1. Definition

The term "Confidential Information" means and includes any information regarding the economic activity of the Company that is not public, according to (i) the law, (ii) the decisions of the General Meeting of the Shareholders, (iii) the decisions of the Board of Administration and (iv) the internal regulations of the Company.

Not limited to the above, confidential information includes:

- a) the contractual terms and any information regarding the business partners, customers, agencies, employees, entrepreneurs, investors or suppliers of the Company, as well as the conditions under which the Company carries out economic activities with each of these persons;
 - b) computer programs (including source code and object code) or software developed, modified or used by the Company;
 - c) information of any kind compiled by the Company, including, but not limited to, information related to products and services, advertising and marketing, as well as existing or potential customers, suppliers and/or business partners;
 - d) algorithms, procedures or techniques, or essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures or techniques developed by or those used by the Company or otherwise known to the Company (except for any algorithm, procedure or technique in the public domain), whether or not these algorithms, procedures, techniques are part of a computer program, including, but not limited to techniques for:
 - identifying potential customers;
 - effective communication with existing or potential customers;
 - reducing operating costs or increasing system efficiency.
 - e) the fact that the Company uses, has used or evaluated as a possibility to use any particular database, data sources, algorithms, precedents or techniques or ideas developed or provided by a person other than the Company (including any algorithm, procedure or technique in the public domain), whether or not such algorithms, procedures or techniques are part of a computer program;
 - f) marketing strategies, developed, investigated, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, modified, tested or used by the Company, or any information about or that could reasonably lead, in a reasonable manner, to the development of such a strategy;
 - g) information on the Company's future plans, including, but not limited to, geographic expansion plans, market segments or services;
 - h) information which will be disclosed exclusively under the conditions laid down in point 5;
 - i) any other information acquired by the Administrator during the exercise of his/her mandate, which could reasonably be considered to reflect the Company's vulnerabilities, and which would help a competitor or potential competitor of the Company to compete successfully against the Company;
 - j) any information received by the Company from third parties who, in turn, have an obligation of confidentiality, on the existence of which they notify the Company;
 - k) any information deriving from all the above and
 - l) any copies of all the information mentioned above, except where such copies are requested by a court or other public authority, under the conditions provided by law.
- #### 2. Use and Disclosure of Confidential Information

Translation from Romanian

The Administrator acknowledges that he/she has acquired and/or will acquire Confidential Information during or in connection with the exercise of the mandate within the Company, as well as that the use of this Confidential Information for the purpose of competing with the Company, by himself/herself or by other persons, would severely endanger the Company's ability to continue its economic activity.

Therefore, the Administrator agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time for the duration of the Contract concluded with the Company or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this contract will terminate, will not use or cause the use of any Confidential Information in connection with any activities or businesses, except the economic activities of the Company, and will not disclose or cause the disclosure of any Confidential Information to any natural person, company, association, group or any other entity, unless such disclosure has been duly authorized in writing by the Company, or unless required by any applicable law, or ordered by a competent court or arbitral tribunal, or by any public authority empowered by law to receive such information.

In addition, the Administrator undertakes to notify the Company, promptly, of any act of a court or arbitral tribunal, or of another public authority, of the nature specified in the preceding paragraph, so that the Company may adopt, in accordance with the law, protection measures or other appropriate solution, and shall continue to provide any assistance that the Company may reasonably request to guarantee such measures or solutions, if the protection measures referred to in the preceding paragraph are not sufficient, the Administrator shall provide only that section of the Confidential Information which is lawfully required by the public authority concerned and shall make all reasonable and legally grounded efforts to obtain the confidential treatment of any Confidential Information so disclosed.

3. Use and disclosure of information about third parties

The Administrator understands that the Company sometimes receives information from third parties, which the Company must treat confidentially and use only for limited purposes, ("Information about third parties").

The Administrator agrees that, directly or indirectly, at any time, for the duration of the Contract concluded with the Company, or at any time after its termination, and regardless of when and for what reason this Agreement will terminate, he/she will not use or cause the use of any Third Party Information, unless permitted by a written agreement between the Company and the third party, unless required by any applicable law or by the decision of a competent court or arbitral tribunal or by any other public authority which by law it is empowered to receive such information. In addition, the Administrator undertakes to notify the Company, promptly, of any act of a court or arbitral tribunal, or of another public authority, of the nature specified in the preceding paragraph, so that the Company may adopt, in accordance with the law, protection measures or other appropriate solution. If the protection measures are not sufficient, the Administrator will only provide that section of the Third Party Information, as legally required.

4. Protection of trade secrets

Nothing in this Contract shall affect the Company and shall not in any way affect its rights to protect its business secrets, by any means provided by law.

5. Disclosure of information by the Company

For the duration of the Contract and on the date of termination of this Contract, the Administrator shall promptly disclose and deliver to the Company, to the extent that such disclosure is reasonably deemed to be in the Company's interest, in writing, or in any form and manner, reasonably requested by the Company, the following information, ("Information to be disclosed"):

- (i) all and any algorithms, procedures or techniques relating to the economic activities of the Company or the activity of the Administrator within the Company, the essential ideas and principles underlying such algorithms, procedures or techniques designed, original, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested or applied by the Administrator during his/her activity within the Company, regardless of whether such algorithms, procedures or techniques have been incorporated into a computer program;

- (ii) any and all marketing strategies, the essential ideas and principles underlying these strategies and any information that could reasonably lead to the development of such strategies designed, original, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested or applied by the Administrator during his/her activity within the Company;
- (iii) information on all and any products and services, ideas and essential principles underlying these products and services, designed, original, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested or applied by the Administrator during his/her activity within the Company and
- (iv) any other ideas or information conceived, original, adapted, discovered, developed, acquired (from a third party or otherwise), evaluated, tested or applied by the Administrator during his/her activity within the Company, if these ideas or information may reasonably be held to be useful or valuable to the Company.

6. Confidentiality of Information to be Disclosed

The parties agree that the Information that will be disclosed, according to point 5 is, in turn, subsumed to the scope of Confidential Information, as defined in point 1 of this Annex, and the Administrator undertakes to use and keep all the Information that will be disclosed in accordance with point 5 in the same manner as the Confidential Information, while respecting the provisions of point 3 of this Annex regarding the confidentiality of Third Party Information.

7. Duration of compliance with confidentiality obligations

The obligations of confidentiality incumbent on the Administrator under this Annex, an integral part of the Contract, shall remain applicable after the termination of this Contract and shall take effect for an unlimited period of time or until the date on which they become public.

8. Upon termination of the mandate contract, regardless of the reason for termination, the administrator will return to the company any confidential documents or will destroy them.

Annex 3

INTEGRITY CRITERIA

Considering the following:

The members of the Board of Administrators have the obligation to declare any personal interests that may contradict the objective exercise of the attributions they exercise in fulfilling their mandate;

The members of the Board of Administration are obliged to take all necessary measures to avoid situations of conflict of interest and incompatibilities;

Early identification and timely removal of the premises of corruption are a priority and imperative; Ethics refers to individual behaviour, in an organizational or non-organizational context, which can be appreciated or evaluated from the perspective of values, principles and ethical rules at the level of the society.;

Integrity behaviour is that behaviour that is appreciated or evaluated ethically as correct. Integrity, as an individual value, refers to this ethical correctness, which cannot be delimited by legal and professional correctness;

Behaviour lacking integrity is a form of undermining society's mission, leading to a toxic organizational climate for employees and third parties, and affecting the legitimate interests of all involved, including the public interest.

The Company's administrator assumes the following integrity criteria:

1. Is a person who is competent, fair and eager to contribute to the development of society;
2. Adheres to the values and principles of the company's code of ethics;
3. Makes decisions only in the interests of Company (decisions are not made to gain financial benefits or other material benefits for themselves, their family or loved ones);
4. Has no business or contracts with the company for which he/she acts as a member of the Board of Administration, or with a partner company;
5. Ensures compliance with the principle of transparency regarding his/her decisions and actions;
6. Has a duty to declare any particular interests related to the fulfilment of the specific responsibilities of the mandate and to take action in order to resolve any conflicts of interest that may arise, so as to protect the interest of Company;
7. Is responsible for his/her decisions and actions in front of the shareholders and is subject to any evaluation of the performance in fulfilling the mandate;
8. Must not create financial or other obligations towards organizations or natural or legal persons that would influence the way in which he/she carries out the duties specific to the mandate received from shareholders;
9. Does not have any personal debts towards the state budget;
10. No criminal investigation has been initiated against him/her, he/she has not been prosecuted or convicted for committing an act of corruption or an act related to non-compliance with the regime of interdictions, incompatibilities, conflict of interest or declaration of assets, embezzlement, tax evasion, deeds that are related to the exercise of administrator duties, or for any other deeds provided by criminal law;

11. The National Integrity Agency did not order a final act of finding, regarding the violation of the legal obligations regarding the unjustified assets, the conflict of interests or the regime of incompatibilities;
12. He/she was not been found, by a final court decision, to have been a collaborator or worker of the Securitate, as a political police, according to the law, and did not promote/does not promote extremist ideas or actions (racism, xenophobia, anti-semitism, etc.);
13. Did not obtain degrees and diplomas through plagiarism, or intellectual theft proven by a final court decision;
14. Is not under judicial control for any type of crime, as well as under pre-trial detention or house arrest;
15. He did not show insulting, aggressive or inappropriate behaviour towards his/her colleagues;
16. He/she is effectively involved in promoting the integrity of the Company and provides his/her own example of integrity by sanctioning or properly managing violations of the rules, from the smallest, such as administrative misconduct, to the most serious, such as criminal offences.
