Submitted for approval in the EGMS of 27.04.2020

REPORT

on the approval of Transgaz`s quality of Associate Member in the Romanian Stock Exchange Romanian Investors Relations Association (ARIR)

SUMMARY

The Romanian Stock Exchange Romanian Investors Relations Association is a non-governmental and non-profit organization that was set-up to provide current and potential issuers a platform for the development of Investor Relations (IR) professionals and contribute to the implementation of best practices in investor communication and corporate governance. The founding members of the association are listed companies, those with potential to become listed companies, fund managers and Investor Relations professionals.

The Association's actions are to take place in the general interest of members and investors, without political or religious implications. The association is non-patrimonial, non-profit its purpose being informative, aiming to create a debate forum, depending on the specifics of the Association's work.

The objectives of the Association are:

- Regular evaluation of the progress of the implementation of best investor relations practices at the level of the market and of the companies;
- Improving the presentation and communication of the companies listed at the stock exchange, in the stock exchange listing process or those issuing bonds in the relation with the investors;
- Monitoring of legislative processes with an impact on companies listed at the stock exchange, in the stock exchange listing process or those issuing bonded companies, promoting changes of interest for the members, impact assessment and the application of the law;

- Strengthen links and improve dialogue with investors and analysts;
- Promoting and awarding companies, which implement the best practices.

For Transgaz, admission to trading on the regulated market managed by the Bucharest Stock Exchange was both a recognition of its efficient activity, its value and position in the domestic and international business environment as well as an additional, reliable source of financing of investment and development plans.

SNTGN TRANSGAZ SA, a dynamic company, able to align its activity with the requirements of the current domestic and international context in which it operates, operated on the capital market ranking 10 in Top 10 2019 trading after the value traded on the Bucharest Stock Exchange.

The establishment of the Romanian Stock Exchange Romanian Investors Relations Association (ARIR) and Transgaz`s becoming an Associate Member of the Association is an opportunity to improve and strengthen the relationship with both investors and regulators and public authorities, as well as to implement the best investor relations practices at the market as well as the company level.

- (iii) in case of death (in the case of the member - the natural person) / dissolution-liquidation (in the case of the member - the legal person);
- (iv) in case of dissolution of the Association.

3.7. The exclusion of the members may take place as a sanction at the proposal of the Board of Directors, by the decision of the General Assembly, in the following cases: (i) the production of moral or material damages to the Association; (ii) engaging the respective member in activities that contravene the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Code of Ethics and/or the decisions of the governing bodies of the Association; (iii) engaging the respective member in activities that contravene the law and/or the law order; (iv) the conviction for criminal acts incompatible with the membership of the Association; (v) has repeatedly violated the obligations undertaken by this Bylaws; (vi) the causes that led to the suspension of the membership of the Association according to the present Bylaws have not ceased within 1 month from the date of suspension.

Art. 3.7¹. The General Assembly may decide¹ to suspend a member of the Association in one of the following cases:

- (i) non-payment of the contribution within 3 months from the date of issue of the invoice;
- (ii) a member no longer meets the qualification conditions for membership of the Association.

3.8. The modification of the type of membership can be made based on a written request sent to the Association's Board of Directors and an analysis of the justification provided by the respective member.

3.9. The members of the Association have the following obligations:

- to comply with the provisions of the Bylaws, the Articles of incorporation and the Code of Ethics, as well as the decisions of the governing bodies of the Association;

- to contribute to the achievement of the Association's purpose;
- to pay the fees to the Association, in the terms and conditions established in this Bylaws and/or by the General Assembly;
- to inform the Board of Directors about the substantive changes to their situation in relation to the capital market, such as listings or delistings;
- not to take actions that, by their nature, can harm the scope or interests of the Association.

3.10. The founding members, Associate and Professional members have the following rights:

- to vote within the General Assembly;
- to elect and be elected within the governing bodies and working committees of the Association;
- to participate in the projects, initiatives, events and activities of the Association;
- to make proposals for supplementing and modification of the Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation and/or the Code of Ethics;
- to consult the annual balance sheet;
- have full access to the resources of the Association, in the dedicated section of the Association's website;
- to use the logo and the mention of the quality of member of the Association in the public communications, presentation materials and on its own website.

3.11. The affiliated members of the Association have the following rights:

- to participate in the working committees of the Association;
- to participate in the projects, initiatives, events and activity of the Association;
- to make proposals for supplementing and modification of the Bylaws, the Articles of incorporation and/or the Code of Ethics;
- to consult the annual balance sheet;
- to have full access to the resources of the Association, in the dedicated section of the Association's website;
- to use the logo and the mention of the quality of member of the Association in the public communications, presentation materials and on its own website.

Art. 4 Organization and duties

4.1. The management, administration and control bodies of the Association are the General Assembly, the Board of Directors and the Censor.

4.2. The General Assembly is the governing body of the Association, being made up of all the members. The right to vote in the General Assembly belongs to the members with the right to vote, according to the categories provided in art. 3.2. - 3.4 of the present Bylaws, each member with voting rights benefiting by one (1) vote in the General Assembly, which can be exercised provided the financial obligations towards the Association are fulfilled.

4.3. The General Assembly has the following responsibilities:

- establishes the general strategy and objectives of the Association;
- appoints and dismisses the members of the Board of Directors and the Censor;
- approves the annual activity report of the Association;
- approves the revenue and expenditure budget and the balance sheet;
- establishes the benefits and contributions to which the members of the Association will be subject to;
- approves the establishment of subsidiaries;
- approves the modification of the Articles of incorporation, the Bylaws and the Code of Ethics;
- approves the discharge of the administration of the members of the Board of Directors and the Censor;
- approves the dissolution and liquidation of the Association, as well as establishing the destination of the assets left after the liquidation;
- decides on the exclusion of members, based on the notification of the Board of Directors.

4.4. All the powers that are not assigned by this Bylaws or by the Articles of incorporation to the Board of Directors or the Censor belong to the General Assembly, which will be exercised according to this Bylaws.

4.5. The General Assembly meets at least once a year upon the convening of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and/or when 20% of the members of the Association with voting rights request this through the Board of Directors, by sending written requests to the Chairman of the Board of Directors. The convocation of the members will be addressed 10 calendar days before the date of the meeting through the electronic means of communication to the correspondence address indicated by the members (e-mail, fax) with the date, place and agenda. The General Assembly may also meet in the absence of completing the convening formalities, if all the members are present or represented.

Art. 4.6. The General Assembly is statutory established in the presence or with the representation of half of the number of members with voting rights, and if this presence cannot be achieved at the first meeting, a new convocation shall be made within 7 (seven) calendar days from the previous convocation, according to the same procedure, when the General Assembly will be statutory established in the presence or with the representation of 33% of the number of voting members. In both cases, the decisions of the General Assembly are taken with the simple majority of the votes present or represented.

The members may be represented at the General Assembly by its members on the basis of a written power of attorney granted for this purpose.

Participation in the General Assembly can also take place by means of distance communication (video conference, telephone conference, etc.). The vote of the members with the right to vote can also be expressed by electronic mail (e-mail) after their full information on the topics on the agenda.

The meetings of the General Assembly are chaired by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or, in his absence, by another member of the Association with the right to vote previously designated by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, at the latest before the date of the meeting of the General Assembly and if it is not possible, the General Assembly will be chaired by any of the voting members of the Association.

The debates and decisions of the General Assembly are recorded in a register kept at the headquarters of the Association by a secretary appointed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and are certified by the signature of the Chairman of the Board of Directors. Interested third parties can obtain a copy of the document with the related decisions, based on a written and reasoned letter sent to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4.6¹. The decisions taken by the General Assembly of the Association within the limits of the law, the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws are mandatory also for the members who did not take part in the General Assembly or voted against, as well as for the members without voting rights.

4.7. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is elected by secret vote by the General Assembly, for a period of 1 year, with the possibility of renewing the mandate. The first Chairman of the Association, appointed by this Bylaws, is Mrs. Daniela Serban.

4.8. The Chairman of the Board of Directors has the following tasks:

- Convenes and chairs the work of the General Assembly and the Board of Directors;
- Represents the Association, including before the courts;
- Concludes legal acts on behalf and on account of the Association;
- Represents the Association in relation with the central or local public authorities, the press, governmental or non-governmental organizations in the country and abroad, as well as with international organizations;
- Exercises its authority to achieve the Association's goals;

- Decides on various operational problems in relation to the Association, in accordance with this Bylaws and the Articles of Incorporation;
- Responds to the General Assembly for the activity performed by the Board of Directors.

4.8'. The Chairman of the Board of Directors may delegate part of the assigned duties to one of the Vice-Presidents or to another member of the Board of Directors in order to ensure the current management of the Association's activity and of the staff employed in the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

4.9. The Board of Directors is the collective administrative body of the Association, which ensures the implementation of the decisions of the General Assembly. The members of the Board of Directors are appointed by secret vote for a period of one year, with the possibility of renewing the mandate and may be Romanian or foreign natural or legal persons.

4.10. The Board of Directors has the following general tasks:

- Elaborates and monitors the implementation of an annual action plan in accordance with the objectives of the Association;
- It monitors the fulfillment of the revenue and expense budget;
- It presents to the General Assembly the activity report for the previous period, the execution of the revenue and expense budget, the balance sheet, the project of the revenue and expense budget and the draft action plan of the Association;
- Approves the association of new members of the Association;
- Establishes the personnel policy of the Association, appoints the executive staff and establishes its remuneration, organization chart and establishes the remuneration of the Censors, as the case may be;
- It notifies the General Assembly with a view to excluding or suspending members, in the cases established in this Bylaws or by the General Assembly;
- Performs any other duties established by the General Assembly.

4.11. The Board of Directors will minimum 3 (three) and maximum 9 (nine) members, the number of members in the Board of Directors will always be less than the number of associated members with voting rights. The members of the Board of Directors were appointed from or on behalf of the Members: Ms Daniela Șerban (Founding Member), Mr Adrian Tanase (representative of the Bucharest Stock Exchange S.A.), Ms Ioana Birsu (representative of Franklin Templeton Investment Management Limited UK, the Bucharest Branch), Mr Tony-Avramescu-Gruia Romani (Founding Member), Mr Adrian Șuta (representative of C.N.T.E.E. Transelectrica SA) and Ms Valentina Elena Dinu (representative of the National Company Nuclearelectrica S.A.).

4.12. The Board of Directors shall appoint two Vice-Chairmen and one Secretary-General from its members. These functions will be performed voluntarily, on the basis of a free warrant.

4.14. The Board of Directors usually meets at least 3 times a year or whenever necessary, at the written and reasoned request of the Chairman of the Board of Directors or at the request of any member. The Board of Directors is legally convened in the presence of half plus one of the members. If this majority cannot be achieved at the first convening, a new convening is made within 5 (five) calendar days after the previous convocation, according to the same procedure, when the Board of Directors will consider itself legally convened, regardless of the number of members present. In both cases, the decisions of the Board of Directors are taken by a majority of the votes present or represented, and in case of parity of votes the Chairman of the Board of Directors will decide.

Members may be represented in the Board of Directors by other members of the Board of Directors on the basis of a written empowerment.

The convening of the Board of Directors shall be made by the Chairman in writing, by e-mail or letter with acknowledgement of receipt, at least 48 hours before the proposed date for its convening and includes information on the date, time and place of the meeting, as well as the agenda.

The Board of Directors will be able to convene validly and in the conditions of the absence of the convening formalities, if all members are present or represented.

Participation in meetings can also take place through remote communication means (videoconference, conference call, etc.). The vote of the members of the Board of Directors can also be expressed by electronic correspondence (e-mail) after their full information on the topics on the agenda.

4.15. The quality of member of the Board of Directors may be lost in the following cases:

- (a) death;
- (b) renunciation to the mandate, submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Board of Directors;
- (c) revocation by the General Meeting.

In case of vacancy in the Board of Directors, following one of the situations mentioned above, the Chairman proposes a temporary BoD member, until the first General Meeting, which will appoint a member of the Board, for the purpose of the occupation of the vacancy as soon as possible.

4.16. The Board of Directors may designate a natural or legal person with an executive role, in order to execute the current activities of the Association or decisions of the General Meeting.

4.17. The censor ensures the internal control of the activity of the Association. The responsibilities of the Censor include:

- Verification of the way in which the patrimony of the Association is managed;
- Preparation of reports and their presentation to the General Meeting;

- Possibility to attend meetings of the Board of Directors, without voting rights;
- Perform any other tasks established by the General Meeting.

4.18. The censor will submit an annual report, which will be discussed and approved by the General Meeting. The censor is obliged to convene the General Meeting if she/he finds serious violations of the decisions of the Board of Directors, the Bylaws, the Code of Ethics or the law, by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, and if she/he finds the loss of 20% of the value of the assets in the last approved balance sheet. For the activity carried out by the censor, the Board of Directors may establish a monthly allowance.

Given that at the time of the founding of the Association, the number of Founding Members is less than 15 (fifteen), there is no obligation to appoint a Censor, and, consequently, the Censor was not designated, following that when the number of members of the Association will reach the threshold established by the law, the General Meeting to proceed to the designation. Following the designation, the Censor will carry out his activity according to the law and the provisions above.

Article. 4. Association member fees

4.1. Each member of the Association will pay an annual fee, the amount of which is determined by the General Meeting for each category of members.

4.2. The General Meeting may also establish other member fees, such as the access fee.

4.3. The fees of the members of the Association shall be paid in a single instalment, within a maximum of 2 months from acquiring the quality of member.

4.4. If a member acquires this quality during one year, the amount of the access fee will be paid in full and the amount of the annual fee will be calculated in proportion to the remaining period from the date of the acquisition membership quality until the end of the year.

4.5. If a member loses this quality, except in cases of exclusion, she/he will have the right to be reimbursed only the annual fee paid, proportional to the period remaining from the date of loss of the quality of member until the end of the year.

Article. 5. Public communication

5.1. If the Association decides to publish an official document or press release, decisions shall be taken by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors.

5.2. The members of the Board of Directors shall decide within 36 hours from the notification of the need and content of a public release, and otherwise their agreement will be implied.

5.3. Public statements may be made by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or Vice-Chairmen.

5.4. The Association's positions do not imply the responsibility of the companies whose employees or collaborators are also members of the Association. This shall be duly specified whenever the Association decided to express an opinion or establish a press release, based on this provision.

Article. 6. Assets and income of the Association

6.1. At the time of the establishment of the Association, its assets consist of the Founding Members fee, amounting to 200 lei, cash.

6.2. The association's income may come from the benevolent contributions of the members, interest and dividends resulting from the placement of the available amounts, according to the law, the dividends of companies established by the Association within the limits of the law, income from direct economic activities, donations, sponsorships or related to these, resources obtained from the state budget or from the local budgets or other income stipulated by law.

6.3. The Association may carry out activities for profit, only if and in the conditions in which they are ancillary in nature and are closely related to its main purpose, stated in these Bylaws.

6.4. Dividends obtained from the activities of companies in which the Association is a shareholder/associate are used to achieve the stated purpose of these Bylaws, if they are not reinvested in the same companies.

Article. 7. Termination of legal personality

7.1. The Association may cease in the following situations: by law, in the cases stipulated by law, voluntarily, by decision of the General Meeting, by court, by decision of the court or tribunal.

7.2. In the event of a voluntary dissolution, the General Meeting shall appoint a liquidator, establish its competences and indicates the allocation to be granted to assets in the Association's patrimony. In case of dissolution of the Association, the assets remaining after the liquidation cannot be transmitted to natural persons. These assets may be transmitted to legal persons governed by private law or public law for identical or similar purpose, the methodology for transmission being established by the General Meeting, on the basis of the act deciding the cessation of the activity.

Art. 8. Final provisions

The provisions of these Bylaws shall be supplemented by the provisions of Ordinance No 26/2000, as further amended and supplemented, and with the other normative acts in force.

Amendments to these Bylaws Statute can be made by Addenda, which will become part of the Bylaws.

The Bylaws shall become applicable as of the date of obtaining the legal personality of the Association and its registration in the Register of Associations and Foundations.

The Bylaws was prepared in 6 (six) counterparts today, 15 April 2019, the date of signature.
