

CELEBRATION OF GAS WORKERS' DAYS (September 12th – 19th, 2008)

Gas Workers' Days are customarily celebrated each second Friday of September. TRANSGAZ gives special attention to such anniversary holding a series of events during September 12th – 19th, 2008.

Gas workers' days celebrate the pleasure and contentment in playing a part in the large and noble family of those labouring over the Gas Industry in order to ensure a source of heat, welfare and development.

Already a tradition, the events assigned to such celebration, are held annually within the mid of September. This year, during September 12th – 19th, 2008, we shall witness and participate in a chain of occupational, sports and cultural actions. To crown the whole, the celebration shall end in a barbeque party on Greweln plateau, near Medias – the host town of the two National Gas Companies: TRANSGAZ and ROMGAZ, where gas workers and various business partners of the two companies, as well as officials of the Ministry of Economy and Finance shall gather together.

Gas workers' days have great significance both for the beneficiaries and for the suppliers of TRANSGAZ' services, as the company's guests on September 18th, 2008 on the occasion of the "Client's Day"; Such Day is totally dedicated to them and stands for a good opportunity to bring together all clients in order to contemplate and discuss all the company's current and future concerns.

The celebration dedicated to the extended family of gas personnel consists of several sports and occupational contests organized by the system's Trade Unions, such as: "The Best Gas Operator", "Specific Labour Safety Laws", as well as the 9th edition of the "Gas Trophy" for chess, table tennis, backgammon and football.

The Gas Workers' Days provide TRANSGAZ a good opportunity to send the best regards and congratulations to all persons currently working or having worked in the Gas Industry for their efforts and special achievements in the gas sector, which is the strongest industrial branch of Medias.

TRANSGAZ bids MANY HAPPY RETURNS OF THE DAY to all gas employees and to their beloved ones!

comunicare.imagine@transgaz.ro

www.transgaz.ro