As compared to 2012, the income from international gas transmission services decreased due to a lower RON/EUR and RON/USD average exchange rate. Financial income was lower due to the decreasing of the bank deposits of the company.

The total costs estimated increased by 10% as compared to year 2012, which is higher by 102.172 thousand RON and were influenced mainly by the setting of the tax on natural monopoly in the field of electricity and gas, according to Government Ordinance No. 5 of 22 January 2013, and also by the technological consumption gas procuring costs savings.

The financial costs were higher by 114.802 thousand RON due to the financial assets depreciation provision (110.671 thousand RON), representing Transgaz's contribution to the share capital of Nabucco Gas Pipeline International GmbH, following the non-selection of the Nabucco West project as gas transmission route.

As compared to the results as at 31 December 2012, the gross profit estimated for year 2013 increased by 9%, which is higher by 34.906 thousand RON.

The draft financial statements for year 2013 are not audited and were prepared according to the IFRS-EU.
